

All information contained in this map, existing properties that might be related to National Defense activities, is to be treated as strictly confidential by our subscribers and not divulged to any outside agencies. The U.S. Espionage Act makes it a crime to disclose information relating to National Defense to any person in any manner or to permit it from falling into the hands of any unauthorized person. Penalties for such a violation are provided in full or in part as follows:

